B

One day, two good friends, Peter and Bill, were walking through the desert. During the journey they had a quarrel, Peter couldn’t control himself and hit Bill in the face. Bill felt hurt, but he didn’t say anything. He just wrote words in the sand, “Today my best friend hit me in the face.”

They kept on walking until they found an oasis (绿洲). They decided to get some water there. Suddenly Bill had trouble in the water, he fell into the mire (泥潭) and was in danger. Peter saved him at once. When he felt all right, he wrote on a stone, “Today my best friend Peter saved my life.”

Peter was very surprised and asked Bill, “After I hurt you, you wrote in the sand and now you write on the stone. Why?” Bill replied, “When someone hurts us, we should write it down in the sand so that the wind of forgiveness can blow it away. But when someone does anything good for us, we must write it on the stone, so no wind can blow it away.”

Since then, the two good friends have never quarreled with each other again and they get on better with each other.

Walking is one of the easiest forms of exercise. It's really simple, right? Just get up and walk around. Most people don't even consider it to be exercise, but it most certainly is. Let's look at the benefits of walking.

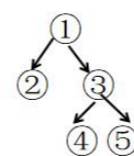

Walking is a kind of low-impact exercise. Anyone at any fitness level can walk. If you can't run, because of hip or knee pain, you can still usually walk. So why not walk a bit?

Walking and some light exercise for 30 minutes a day, according to the American Heart Association, has many benefits. It can reduce your risk of heart disease and heart attacks. It can help keep your blood healthy, reducing unhealthy fats and additional sugars in your blood. What's more, it has been proven to improve your mood! This is a lot of positive benefits for just walking around!

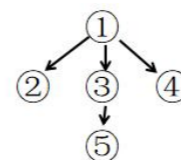

Another cool thing about walking is that you can talk while you're doing it. If you're running or playing team sports, you might not be able to catch your breath long enough to talk. If you walk with your dog, a friend, or your family, you can talk about your day or get something off your mind.

So, get out there and start walking! Put on comfortable shoes and walk a few minutes every day. It's especially helpful in the morning to get your blood pumping(涌流) and your mind clear.
