One morning, when a traveler came out of the airport, he found there were a lot of taxis there. After he asked every driver’s name, he took the third one. It cost him ten dollars from the airport to the hotel. “How much does it cost for the whole day?” the man asked. “150 dollars.” said the taxi-driver. This was very expensive, but the man said it was OK.

The taxi-driver took the man everywhere. He showed him around all the parks and museums in the city. They went back to the hotel in the evening. The traveler gave 150 dollars to the taxi-driver and said: “what about tomorrow?” The taxi-driver looked at the man and said: “Tomorrow? It’s another 150 dollars.” The man said: “That’s OK! See you tomorrow.” The taxi-driver was very pleased.

The next day the taxi-driver took the traveler everywhere again. They visited all the parks and museums again. And in the evening they went back to the hotel. The man gave the taxi-driver 150 dollars again and said: “I’m going home tomorrow.” The taxi-driver was sorry because he liked the traveler and, above all, getting 150 dollars a day was a lot of money. “So you’re going home. Where do you come from?” he asked. “I come from Berlin.” “Berlin!” said the taxi-driver, “I have a sister in Berlin. Her name is Jessica. Do you know her?” “Of course, I do. She gave me 300 dollars for you!”

31. Where was the traveler from?

- A. Colombia.                      B. New Zealand.
C. Germany.                      D. Norway.

32. Why did the traveler take the third taxi?

- A. Because the other taxi drivers asked for more money.
B. Because the third taxi-driver was a kind-hearted man.
C. Because he didn’t want to spend his own money on the coming visit.
D. Because the other drivers didn’t like to take him.

33. How much did the traveler cost from the airport to the hotel?

- A. 150 dollars                      B. 10 dollars                      C. 300 dollars                      D. 15 dollars

34. Who asked the traveler to give the money to the taxi-driver?
 A. The traveler's sister.                      B. The traveler's parents.
 C. The driver's friend.                      D. The driver's sister.
35. Why did the taxi driver feel sorry when he knew the traveler would go home on the third day?
 A. Because the taxi driver and the traveler became friends.
 B. Because the taxi driver wanted to get more money from the traveler.
 C. Because the traveler was his sister's good friend.
 D. Because the taxi driver and the traveler came from the same place.

C

Have you seen this meme (表情包) online before? The man in the meme is Michael Rosen, a famous British children's book writer who has written about 140 books. He's known as "nice granddad" in China.

Michael Rosen was born in Middlesex, the UK in 1946. His parents were both teachers. Michael Rosen started writing poems about people he knew when he was twelve years old. Michael Rosen is busy with the teaching of writing and the reading of literature (文学作品) in schools. He visits schools to encourage children with his love for books and poems. He is one of the first poets to make visits to schools around the UK and the world. He is also one of the first poets to write about his own childhood experiences and to write them in the language children actually use.

However, life hasn't always treated Rosen well. Eddie, his second son, died at the age of 18. Rosen couldn't forget how he felt. The death of his son was the inspiration (灵感) for the book—Michael Rosen's Sad Book. In March 2020, Rosen was sent to the hospital because of serious illness. Later, Rosen recovered, but one of his ears went deaf and he had to learn how to stand up again, just like a kid.

However, for Rosen, it was not the end of the world. He turned the sad experience into writing. He wrote the book Many Different Kinds of Love and faced life with the most important thing—optimistic (乐观的) spirit.

36. When did Michael start writing poems?
 A. In 1946.                                      B. In 1958.
 C. In 1964.                                      D. In 2020.
37. What kinds of roles does Michael have according to the passage?
 A. A writer, a father, a poet and a teacher.
 B. A writer, a poet, a teacher and a doctor.
 C. A writer, a father, a poet and an actor.
 D. A father, a poet, a teacher and an actor.
38. What can we know about Michael Rosen?
 A. He made visits to schools to sell his books.
 B. He went blind because of illness.

- C. He turned the sad experience into writing.
 D. His second son died because of an accident.

39. What does the underlined word "recovered" mean in Paragraph 3?
 A. 康复                      B. 隔离                      C. 病危                      D. 覆盖
40. Which of the following words can best describe Michael from the text?
 A. Helpful and careful.
 B. Creative and honest.
