Here are some good suggestions on how to talk with your parents.

Try to start your talk with something fun. This will make talking easier. For example, ask your parents questions about their day: "How's work?" They love this.

Make it clear what you want to tell your parents. If they have an opinion, let them finish, and don't interrupt. Ask them to do the same for you.

Show them your respect by listening to them carefully. Look them in the eye. Be honest. Honesty builds trust. Life is good when your parents trust you.

If your parents don't understand, that's OK. It doesn't mean they don't love you or they are not trying. Sometimes you have to explain things to them again or in a different way. When you finish the talk, thank them for listening. Say something like "Thanks. That helped." It will let them know this is important to you, and make them want to do it more often. If you feel like there is still something to talk about, set up a time with them to talk about it in another way.

36. What does the underlined word "interrupt" probably mean in Chinese?

- A. 打断
- B. 鼓励
- C. 放弃
- D. 回避

37. What should we do when our parents have some opinions?

- A. Ask them to stop.
- B. Argue with them and say sorry.
- C. Let them keep talking.
- D. Explain your ideas to them.

38. Why should we look them in the eye?

- A. Because this shows we agree with what they say.
- B. Because they make us do that.

C. Because this makes them feel respected.

D. Because this shows we understand them.

39. What should we do when we finish the talk?

A. We should tell our parents that we are thankful for what they have done for us.

B. We should not do anything.

C. We should talk about it again in another way.

D. We should say sorry.

40. The best title for this passage is "Some Advice on _____".

A. How to Talk to Parents

B. How to Talk to Teachers

C. What to Talk to Parents

D. Why to Talk to Parents
