A

Darren	I have a big family. It's great because I really enjoy family parties with my uncles, aunts, cousins, and other relatives. I'm happy that my grandparents live with us. In our culture, we must respect old people.
Emily	In my family, it's hard for girls. My parents make me angry because they always want to know where I go and who I'm with. My grandmother tells me what I should do and shouldn't do. I don't like that. I don't like big families. I want a job. I want to be independent.
Nick	My family is small-it's just my mom, my dad, my brother, and me. Both my parents work, so we don't usually eat meals together. In fact, I usually eat alone. I have one cousin. But I don't see him often because he lives in Australia. And my grandparents live 350 km away, so I don't see them very often, either.
Jason	I think it's good to have a small family like mine. It's easier to do what you want. So I spend much time doing my homework with my friends from school.

Carrie Murphy was eating his lunch one day, when he accidentally swallowed a piece of the plastic wrapping (包裹) his food. He started to grasp his throat. Great fear quickly set in when he realized he couldn't breathe. "It felt sharp in my throat. And it was just hurting," Carrie recalled, adding, "I felt I am dying. Help me!"

Thankfully, James Dawson happened to be walking by at just the right time. What's more, James knew exactly what to do. He saw Carrie grasping his throat, and noted that his face had turned completely purple. So he ran behind Carrie immediately and started doing the Heimlich maneuver. In the end, Carrie shouted, "It's out! It's out!"

James said he'd learned how to do the Heimlich from a book several years before. So he understood the physics behind it. "What it does is push air through the airway(气道) to throw whatever is there out," he explained.

That night, Carrie went home, and told his mother what had happened. She expressed their thanks to James and his mother sincerely. From then on, Carrie and James have been the best friends. Carrie was very grateful to James for helping him when others didn't even notice he was in trouble.

"He knew what to do and I'm glad he knew what to do," Carrie said, "or I probably wouldn't be talking."

31. What can we learn about Carrie from Paragraph 1?

- A. He liked to eat alone.
B. He almost couldn't breathe at noon.
C. He would never eat at school again.
D. He stayed calm when he almost couldn't breathe.

32. Where did James learn the Heimlich maneuver?

- A. From his parents. B. From a video.

C. From a book.

D. From a class.

33. What is the right order of the following events?

- ① Carrie's face became purple. ② The thing in Carrie's throat was out.
③ Carrie's mother expressed their thanks. ④ James rushed to give Carrie a helping hand.
A. ①②③④ B. ④①②③ C. ④②①③ D. ①④②③

34. Which words can best describe James according to the passage?

- A. Wise and calm. B. Brave and lively.
C. Polite and patient. D. Careful and shy.

35. What's the purpose of the passage?

- A. To encourage readers to help others in need.
B. To advise readers to develop good eating habits.
C. To show readers the importance of learning first aid.
D. To show readers how to do the Heimlich maneuver.

C

Hobbies are man's good friends. They come to us when we have nothing to do or when we are tired. I have many hobbies, including painting, dancing and playing soccer. But my favorite is swimming. I love it so much that I even plan to compete professionally.

I have been swimming for ten years now. I still remember the day when I first went to the pool. I was too scared to go into the water. My parents, regular members of a swimming club, forced me into the water without a kickboard (浮板). Soon after, to my surprise, I could float (漂浮). I was so happy that day.

Gradually, my parents taught me different swimming styles, such as freestyle, butterfly and so on. After I learned those, I always wanted to be in the pool. What seemed difficult to my parents in the beginning was getting me into the pool. Now my parents hope that I don't spend much time on swimming.

Swimming as a hobby is surely one of the best. It exercises our whole body. Adults who swim regularly don't have to worry about developing some diseases such as heart disease. For children who swim a lot, swimming allows their arms and legs to grow properly. It also makes them grow taller. The thing that makes me feel very proud is that I'm the tallest in my class.

Now, I swim for an hour every morning before I go to school. After swimming, even for the most difficult subject, I'm better able to concentrate on what the teacher says in class. Swimming has also won me many prizes at local and state level competitions. Once we get over our fear of water, I'm sure we will enjoy it. I'm going to be a swimming coach after graduating from college.

36. How did the author feel when he first learned to swim?

- A. Tired.

37. Now, what do the author's parents want him to do?

- A. Take regular exercise.
- B. Hang out with friends.
- C. Join more club activities.
- D. Spend less time swimming.

38. What is Paragraph 4 mainly about?

- A. The advantages of swimming.
- B. The ways to learn swimming.
- C. When we should swim.
- D. Why the author loves swimming.

39. What does the underlined phrase "concentrate on" mean?

- A. Find out.
- B. Look for.
- C. Focus on.
- D. Go on.

40. The author is probably a _____.

- A. P. E. teacher
- B. college student
- C. swimming coach
